Dear Jeff,

Thank you for presenting at the 7th Annual International ADHD Coaches Conference in Phoenix, Arizona, May 3rd, 2014. Each year the ACO Conference relies on the collaborative and specialized contributions of many to deliver a memorable and rewarding experience to our attendees. Your contribution to the speaker lineup certainly leveraged the benefit of the conference to our attendees.

Your presentation, Attention Blindness – Barriers to Effective Coaching, was sought out by many as a highly relevant and desired topic. We have received many glowing reviews, verbally and in writing, indicating your presentation was well received, professional, and of great value to the audience.

We hope you will consider speaking again next year at the 8th Annual International ADHD Coaches Conference.

Our best regards,

Katherine Jahnke, Conference Co-Chair
Robin Nordmeyer, Conference Co-Chair
